

Itinerary - 6 Days in Milan

Day 1 Wednesday 18th February

Arrive at Milan Malpensa International Airport where you'll be met by a member of our tour host team. You'll then be whisked away to our host hotel for the next five nights, the Voco Milan-Fiere. The 4* hotel is on the north side of the city with great public transport links to the heart of this incredible city. After checking in, you'll have some free time before we meet for our welcome reception, which includes amazing food as well as beer, wine, and sodas.

Day 2 Thursday 19th February

After breakfast at the hotel, which is all included, your day is free to explore Milan. You have a 24 -hour hop-on hop-off tour which takes you around the city to all the major sites. If you prefer, we can add additional Hockey or Skating events to your trip which are all located in Milan.

Day 3 Friday 20th February

Today is a doubleheader of hockey, as we take in both of the Men's Semi-Final games to see who goes forward to the Gold Medal game and the ultimate prize. We head over to the official hospitality venue in central Milan, where we'll enjoy Italian aperitivo inspired bites and beverages, as well as the chance to purchase official games memorabilia. Then we'll move on to the Milano Santa Giulia Ice Hockey Arena for game 1. After the game ends, we'll have time between the games to enjoy more hospitality before heading back inside for game 2. After the game ends, we'll head right back to the hotel for a well-earned rest.

Day 4 Saturday 21st February

After another wonderful breakfast, you have the morning free to explore more of Milan or take in some other events before we meet at the Hospitality facility. We'll enjoy the food, drink, and entertainment, prior to Bronze Medal game, as the Semi-Final losers battle it out for 3rd place and a Bronze Medal. After the game, we head back to the hotel to get ready for tomorrow and the climax of the tournament.

Day 5 Sunday 22nd February

After breakfast, you'll have some time to relax before we head out to our hospitality facility in plenty of time to get ready for the big game. Then it's into the arena for one last time. After the medal ceremony, we head back to the hotel.

Day 6 Monday 23rd February

After breakfast, your driver will collect you for the journey back to the airport and your flight home.
